were able to challenge gender roles and to transcend the limited responsibilities that otherwise would have been assigned to them both by churchmen and by white dominated society the great depression world war ii and the civil rights movement brought increased social and political involvement and the women s department worked to make the sanctified world of the church interact with the broader american society more than just a community of church mothers says butler cogic women utilized their spiritual authority power and agency to further their contestation and negotiation of gender roles in the church and beyond this study argues that the church has the capacity of fostering ideological resistance to the dominant order and therefore making a profound contribution to the sociopolitical liberation of black americans by developing this position using quantitative research methods in three african american churches the work confirms the reality of this
