despite the role of shadow banking in the building up of the 2008 international financial crisis the massive size of this sector its cross border nature and the risks it entails for financial stability the post crisis regulation of shadow banking has remained rather feeble why the perils of international regime complexity in shadow banking identifies a game of shadows which unfolded recursively concerning the definition monitoring and regulation of shadow banking internationally thus states regulators and private actors tended to cast light away from various parts of the shadow banking system shadow banking was re fined over time its measurement was narrowed down lessening the perceived need for regulation the playing out of such a game was facilitated by the international architecture for shadow banking governance which is a regime complex characterized by the presence of multiple institutions and elemental regimes governing a set of related issues indeed shadow banking is a quintessential case for demonstrating the perils of international regime complexity which magnifies problems that are endemic in governing global finance namely interstate competition disagreement between technocratic bodies and the power of the financial industry while splintering solutions due to the fragmentation of regulatory authority empirically this book examines various elemental regimes concerning different aspects of shadow banking namely international standards for defining measuring and monitoring global shadow banking international standards for shadow banking entities including money market funds hedge funds and investment funds international standards for shadow banking activities such as securitization securities lending and repos international standards for bank capital exposures to shadow banking this report comprises three papers written by staff members of the fund s research department on issues arising out of the reports on the international monetary system prepared in 1985 by the group of ten representing the industrial countries participating in the general arrangements to borrow and the intergovernmental group of twenty four on international monetary affairs these two reports which appear as appendices to this volume were transmitted to the interim committee of the fund s board of governors and were subsequently discussed by the fund s executive board in early 1986
